

LAMAR UNIVERSITY MANUAL OF ADMINISTRATIVE POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

SECTION: FinaacServices

AREA: Procurement and Payment Services

VendorEthics MAP05.05.09

I. POLICY

A. As an agency of the State of Texas and member of the Texas State University System (TSUS), Lamar University (LU) holds the trust of the public. All vendors and persons doing business with LUmust provide the highest level of ethics and service in all business interactions.

II. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

A. This policy falls under the authority of thews, statutes, rules, and regulations of the State of Texasand TSUS, including, but not limited the following: the TSUBules and Regulations Chapter III Paragraph 10, and Chapter VII Paragraph 1.3 the Texas Education Code, Chapter 51, Subchapter And the Texas Government Code $3.002 and $2262.004.

III. DEFINITIONS

A. Vendor is a corporation, sole proprietorship, partnership, joint venture, or individual who provides goods or services to the University. A vendor may contract directly with the University or may be a subcontractor and referred to as a supplier, consultant, agent, contractor, or any other party entering into agreements with the institution.

IV. COMPLIANCE WITH LU AND TSUS POLICIES, RULES, AND REGULATIONS

A. Vendors and persons doing business with the University must comply with state and fewsral as well as Lipolicies and procedures and TSUS Board of Reightes and Regulations. Further, all individuals that a vendor permits or requires to be on LU premises must complyal with applicable Luand TSUS rules gulations, and policies.

V. ETHICAL EXPECTATIONS OF LU VENDORS

A. A vendor shall not give, offer to give, nor intend to give at any time any economic opportunity, future employment, gift, loan, gratuity, special discount, trip, favor, or service to a University employee (or employee family member)that might reasonably appear to influence the employee in the discharge of official lities.

Approved:11/22/2021 Page1 of 3

VendorEthics MAPP05.05.09

VII.